

Littérature et culture anglophones | American Cinema

Stephen King, 'Rita Hayworth and The Shawshank Redemption'

Questions on the text | Answer the following questions in English.

- 1- What kind of narrative is it?
- 2- Who is the narrator? Give his name and explain how he introduces himself.
- 3- Where is Red? Give the place and state.
- 4- When did he arrive?
- 5- How long has he been there?
- 6- What did he do to be there?
- 7- How long is he supposed to stay there?
- 8- Translate the expression "work my way up" into French (line 19).
- 9- Should he be given a second chance, would Red do what he did again?
- 10- What does he want to tell the reader about? Give the name of this person.
- 11- What does Red do for other men?
- 12- Why does he do it? Does he do it only for money?
- 13- What are the two things he refuses to handle?
- 14- Who is Andy Dufresne?
- 15- What did he ask red to smuggle into the place for him?

Littérature et culture anglophones | American Cinema

Stephen King, 'Rita Hayworth and The Shawshank Redemption'

Questions on the text | Answer the following questions in English.

- 1- What kind of narrative is it?
- 2- Who is the narrator? Give his name and explain how he introduces himself.
- 3- Where is Red? Give the place and state.
- 4- When did he arrive?
- 5- How long has he been there?
- 6- What did he do to be there?
- 7- How long is he supposed to stay there?
- 8- Translate the expression "work my way up" into French (line 19).
- 9- Should he be given a second chance, would Red do what he did again?
- 10- What does he want to tell the reader about? Give the name of this person.
- 11- What does Red do for other men?
- 12- Why does he do it? Does he do it only for money?
- 13- What are the two things he refuses to handle?
- 14- Who is Andy Dufresne?
- 15- What did he ask red to smuggle into the place for him?